

Application Guidelines for KAKEHASHI Project Japan's Friendship Ties Programs

University Cohort 2023-24

Kakehashi Project

To promote people-to-people exchange between Japan and nations worldwide, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan conducts Japan's Friendship Ties Programs, which send approximately 5,600 people to and from Japan each year. The North American portion of these programs is called the Kakehashi Project. The Japanese word “kakehashi” means “bridge,” a symbol of the belief that participants will form lasting relationships with Japan and its people and serve as bridges between their own cultures and Japan's. Participants are encouraged to share their experiences and discoveries with their networks and to contribute to cultivating deeper international appreciation of Japanese culture. The Kakehashi Project is an exchange program aimed at promoting greater understanding of Japan in North America and should not be considered a training course for the development of special skills.

Program Objectives

- To promote mutual trust and understanding between the peoples of Japan and Canada, and build a basis for future friendship and cooperation
